

El Camino Catcher Inks With Angels

Dave Marsden, hard-hitting North High, smashed out a 354 average in his first year at El Camino. The 20-year-old sophomore is presently catching batting practice for the Angels during their home stand, but will report to Statesville in the Western Carolina League (Class D) after working out with the Angels during spring practice next season.

MARSDEN IS the third ECC player to be signed this season. Previously, Dundee Jones, first sacker, signed with Washington and outfielder Bob Guy inked with the New York Yankees.

In his first year of baseball at North High, the red-head led the club in batting with a .356 average. In his senior year at North, he paced the Saxons to the Bay League championship. His three-year average leveled out to .330.

MARSDEN GIVES credit for his baseball knowledge to his father Stewart, a former semi-pro player. The 6-0, 185 pounder lives at 5201 Arvada, Torrance.

Representing the Torrance Little League in the Little League Tournament will be an all-star team composed of Johnny Cairns, Jackie Cowan, Gene Cook, Dick Cowden, Bill Bergeron, George Von Flowtow, Tim Hamilton, Joel Hons, Billy Hoskinson, Charley Lee, Mike Loney, Mike Menth, Steve Sciarra and Mike White.

Tordondo Announces All-Star Selections

Senators rolled over the Yankees 9 to 2. Frankie Stewart and Bobby Dilts were the winning battery. Tim Hamilton went two for three and Mike Mahaffey two for four to provide the hitting power for the winners.

In a pair of upsets, the Tigers fell before the Indians, 8 to 3, and the Braves, 11 to 7.

JOHNNY CAIRNS bashed a grand slam homer for the Indians as Joel Hons and Tommy Lee combined for the winning battery.

The Braves took advantage of a brother act to gain the victory. Larry Hulsey was the winning hurler and his brother Gary entered the tilt as a pinch hitter and immediately singled in a run and the next time up doubled in two more runs. Steve Waggoner hammered a home run for the Braves and Billy Hoskinson singled and doubled for the victors.

MINOR LEAGUE contests saw the Orioles and Padres play to an 8 to 8 tie, the Athletics outslug the Seals, 12 to 10, the Red Sox nipping the Cards, 12 to 11, the Giants slaughtering the Angels, 20 to 6, and the Phils losing to the Stars, 15 to 12.

Top Drag Pilots Race at Lions In Tune-up Run

Most of the country's top dragster jockeys will be on hand this Saturday night at Lions Drag Strip in Long Beach to tune-up for next week's big championship meet.

Mickey Thompson, strip manager, said he expected most of the dragsters in the area out, nearly 30 in all, in an effort to get their cars running perfectly.

Tom McEwen of Long Beach and Glen Stokey of Redondo Beach will be favored to take top eliminator, however, Don Purdum of Burbank and Dick Donnelly of Van Nuys will be right on their heels.

Action will start with qualifying at 3:30, final eliminations going at 7:30 in the evening.

The strip, which is sponsored by nine harbor area Lions Clubs, has decided to reopen some of the fuel classes it closed nearly five years ago. Actual competition in the nitro burning classes won't start until July 15th during the championship meet.

Bay Drivers Ready to Go

South Bay drivers will be well represented in the king-size field of 212 entered in the Pomona Sports Car road races Saturday and Sunday at the L.A. County Fairgrounds.

Hank Montonen, who has been scoring well in recent outings, will drive his familiar Porsche RS. The car is among the most successful in sports car racing.

Other Porsche pilots entered are Ed Barker and Frank Copeland. An Austin Healey Sprite has been entered by the Pacific Sports Car Club. It will be piloted by Jack Lyon and Nancy Widgen, the latter in the ladies' division.

Red Devils Win Two, Palica Hurt

Hammering out 12 runs on 11 hits, the Torrance Red Devils maintained their second place spot in the Connie Mack League by dumping Westchester 12 to 3.

It was a costly win for the Red Devils as first baseman Ery Palica suffered a broken arm as a result of being hit by a pitched ball in the seventh inning. He will be out for approximately eight weeks.

Bill Williams bashed the only Torrance home run of the game in the eighth frame. Williams' blast came with no one on base.

TOM RICHARDSON notched the victory with a little help from John Torok. The two allowed eight hits.

Dennis Hogue hurled an eight hitter to pace the Red Devils to an 11 to 3 win over Hawthorne, as Carey Hubert provided the hitting power by going four for four at the plate.

THE TWO victories boosted Torrance's season record to 6-2, and left them only a game behind Culver City who stands at 7-1. Finishing out the league standings are San Pedro, 4-4; Torrance Police, 4-4; Westchester, 3-5; and Hawthorne at 1-7.

Saturday the Red Devils engage the Torrance Police at Torrance Park in a contest that begins at 3:30. On Sunday, John Torok will take the mound against Culver City as the Red Devils attempt to climb into a tie for first place. The tilt will also be held at Torrance Park beginning at 3:30.
